

NEW BOOKS & LESSON PLANS ARE HERE!

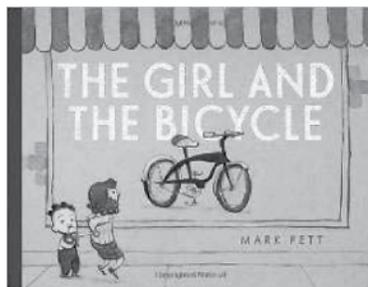

Are you interested in teaching your students money concepts? There are three new books in our school library and off-the-shelf age-appropriate lesson plans for you to use. It's part of Reading is an Investment--a statewide financial literacy program for elementary school students!

CONTACT YOUR SCHOOL LIBRARIAN TODAY!

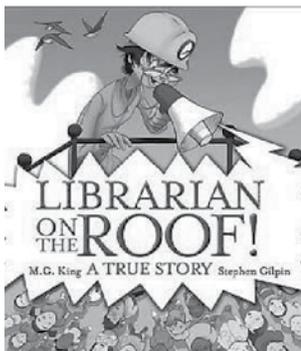

Featured Books:

Teach the concepts of spend, save & share.

This wordless book invites students to creatively write the narrative. Fun comic strip lesson plan.

A true story that challenges students to use their math skills to create a budget for a new children's section.

This year's lesson theme is BUILDING A MONEY PLAN

- 137 Vermont elementary schools participating this year!
- Our students could win one of twenty $250 college savings plan accounts from VSAC
- We could be a part of an April State House ceremony honoring Reading is an Investment winners
- All lesson plans, including previous year's materials, are now available for free online from the Vermont State Treasurer's Office

www.MoneyEd.Vermont.gov