

We've Got Books to Teach Your Students About Personal Finance!

Our school participates in a program called:

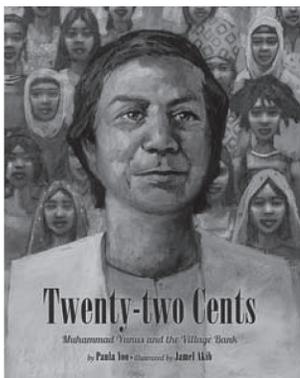

Each year we receive three new hardback books and a curriculum guide to teach students about money. Stop by the library and view the new books for this year. You can also track your students' reading times by using the reading logs that are a part of the program. Students who complete their reading logs could win a $250 college savings account!

CONTACT YOUR SCHOOL LIBRARIAN TODAY!

Featured Books:

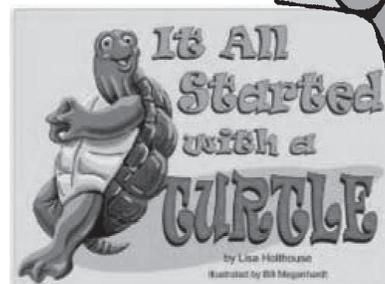

This year's lesson theme is Money Business!

How do banks manage our money?

What gives money value?

How do I earn money?

All lesson plans, including previous year's materials, are now available for free online at:

www.MoneyEd.Vermont.gov