

“The Bridge of the Golden Wood” by Karl Beckstrand

The Bridge of the Golden Wood is written by Karl Beckstrand and is illustrated by Yaniv Cahoua. Copyright 2017. Published by Premio Publishing and Gozo Books

Publisher Book Description:

A child with a knack for solving problems helps some hungry fish and finds a treasure. This Illustrated folk tale teaches how to spot opportunities to help others and make money; comes with ideas for businesses; job ideas, money-making activities; and online resources on finding customers, managing money, career success, and moving up in an organization. Young children will be captivated by the story; older ones will want to apply the things they learn. This how-to book on the value of work bridges the gap between what kids learn in school about jobs, careers, small business, finance, economics, and what they should know.

About the Author

Karl Beckstrand is the bestselling and award-winning author of 19 multicultural/multilingual books and more than 50 ebook titles. Raised in San Jose, CA, he has a B.A. in journalism from BYU, an M.A. in international relations from APU, and a broadcast & film certificate from Film A. Academy. Since 2004 he has run Premio Publishing. His survival western, To Swallow the Earth won a 2016 International Book Award. A college media instructor, Beckstrand has presented to Taiwan’s Global Leadership for Youth, city and state governments, festivals, and schools. Beckstrand’s nationally lauded Y.A. stories, e-book mysteries, ESL/ELL Spanish/bilingual books, nonfiction, and wordless books feature ethnically diverse characters—and usually end with a twist.
