

It's Not Fair

by Caryn Rivadeneira

It's Not Fair is written by Caryn Rivadeneira and illustrated by Isabel Muñoz. Copyright 2018. Published by Beaming Books.

Publisher Book Description:

Roxy Ramirez has saved up for weeks to buy a chemistry set, and now she's headed to the toy store to buy it! There's only one problem: along the way, she keeps running into friends who are in trouble, and need her to dip into her savings to help. Will she have enough money left over to buy something for herself? Especially designed for kids 4-6, It's Not Fair! teaches kids about money, choices, generosity, and what it means to have enough. The book includes a special note in the back to parents about the foundations of generosity in young children and points to additional resources for parents wanting to reinforce the concepts of the book at home.

About the Author

Caryn Rivadeneira is the author of eleven books, for both children and grown-ups. Caryn is a proud member of INK: A Creative Collective and the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators. When not writing, you can find Caryn at her church, where she serves on staff, or hanging out with her husband, three kids, and rescued pit bull.

About the Illustrator

Isabel Muñoz was born and raised in a small town in Spain. As a child, she loved to draw and paint, and she went on to study fine arts and become an illustrator. Isabel loves to look at children's books and search the colorful illustrations to find the tiniest details. She's constantly looking for fresh ideas to draw, so you'll probably find her sketching something new while she's enjoying a cup of tea.
