Dirt Cheap Coloring Sheet

In Dirt Cheap, Birdie starts a business to making money to buy a soccer ball. Now that Birdie has her ball, which soccer gear should she get? Color in the sheet below.
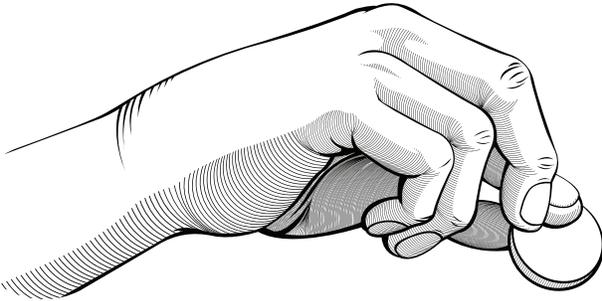

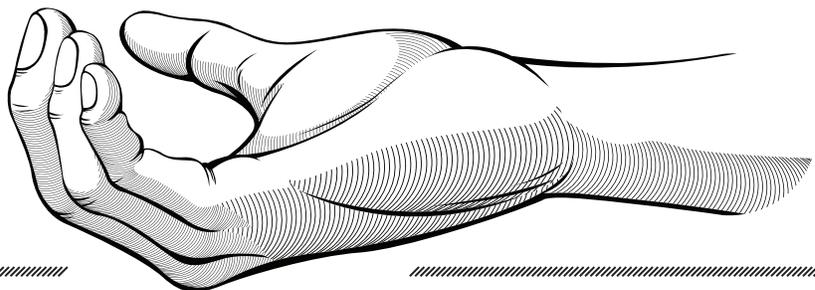

Help Birdie Count to 25 Cents

In the book Dirt Cheap, Birdie becomes an entrepreneur when she begins selling dirt for $.25 a bag. As Birdie learns, there are a lot of ways to count change. One way is by using 1 quarter, as indicated in the first example. There are lots of other ways to make $.25 change -- complete the worksheet to help Birdie solve the other ways to make 25 cents!

Penny (1 cent)		Nickel (5 cents)		Dime (10 cents)		Quarter (25 cents)
	+		+		+	1	=	$.25
	+		+		+		=	$.25
	+		+		+		=	$.25
	+		+		+		=	$.25
	+		+		+		=	$.25
	+		+		+		=	$.25
	+		+		+		=	$.25

Birdie's Dirt Supply and Demand

In the book Dirt Cheap, Birdie has a limited supply of dirt to meet the demand of her customers. Complete the worksheet below and help Birdie manage the supply available so she doesn't run out!

COST (BY THE BAG)	SUPPLY OF DIRT	DEMAND FOR DIRT	TOTAL VALUE OF DIRT SOLD	TOTAL DIRT LEFT OVER
$.25	There are 40 bags of dirt left	Example: Customers buy 24 bags of dirt	Example: $6.00	Example: 16 bags left
$.25	There are 60 bags of dirt left
$.25	There are 32 bags of dirt left
$.25	There are 97 bags of dirt left			